- Final Grid for Peer to Peer Evaluation

Final Webinar

Third Teachers' Training
Self Evaluation

Why self evaluation

Provide insight into students' true comprehension and can help to identify gaps in students' knowledge.

Increases commitment to goal setting/achievement, competency development, and career planning.

Encourages students to examine their own learning and levels of understanding, identifying areas that require improvement

Hughes, I E, "Peer assessment of student practical reports and its influence on learning and skill acquisition. Capability". 1995.

Self evaluation before & after

Usage of same questionnaire before and after the activity in order to:

- make students aware of their starting level
- activate their willingness to learn
- prove their learning.

An example: Cryptography

Self evaluation for personal development

Questionnaire used to promote students awareness of their Individual Soft Skills

Self evaluation for team activities

Questionnaire used to promote
students awareness of their
Team Soft skills

A final survey to conclude our training on evaluation

 survio
